Anno- 1736. 9. 11^{te} c. May, desquels je t'ai vu pour la première fois, et c'est à partir de là que je t'ai connu et aimé. Car pendant ces semaines de l'été, j'étais à la Cour de la Reine.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It begins with "Handwritten text" and continues with several lines of text, including "Handwritten text" and "Handwritten text". The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher in many places. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a historical record or a personal journal. The handwriting is very dense and fills most of the page.

The text is a handwritten document in a cursive script, likely from the 18th or 19th century. It appears to be a letter or a report, written in a language that is difficult to decipher due to the cursive and the use of abbreviations. The text is written on a single sheet of paper, with some lines crossed out or corrected. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often.
